Exel Composites

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Exel Composites Oyj (formerly known as Exel Oyj) is a Finnish technology company that designs, manufactures and markets composite profiles and tubes for industrial applications.<sup>[3]</sup> Exel was founded in 1960 by Yrjö Aho.<sup>[4]</sup>

The name Exel came from a combination of the words explosive electronics.,<sup>[4]</sup> with the company initially producing electric blasting caps <sup>[4]</sup> The company later moved onto production of sports equipment, with a focus on ski poles, before diversifying into a wider range of composite products.<sup>[3][5]</sup>
